Terms of Participation

1. As the NPIP Official State Agency, North Central Poultry Association agrees:

- A. To permit the use of the prefix “U.S. H5/H7 AI Monitored” in connection with other official terms in describing, advertising, and selling poultry and poultry products that meet requirements of the 9CFR Section 146 for Commercial Poultry and Section 56.
- B. To direct and supervise flock/slaughter plant testing for H5/H7 LPAI, to develop and maintain a USDA approved diagnostic surveillance program for H5/H7 LPAI; to develop and maintain and Initial State Response and Containment Plan for H5/H7 LPAI and to perform the administrative work and inspection for which it is responsible in the NPIP.

2. The participant agrees:

- A. To fulfill and maintain all requirements for participation in the NPIP program in accordance with the National Poultry Improvement Plan and Auxiliary Provisions.
- B. To maintain records required by the NPIP and make them available at all time for the purpose of inspection.
- C. To participate in the USDA approved diagnostic surveillance program by submitting representative samples from birds that exhibit unexplained respiratory illness and increased mortality.
- D. To comply with NPIP throughout the operation year, or until release by the OSA.
- E. To participate with all meat-type chicken, table-egg layer flocks, or turkey flocks that are processed at the member’s slaughter plant or breaking facility.
- F. That the slaughter plant is under continuous inspection by the FSIS of USDA, or under the State inspection the FSIS has recognized as equivalent.
- G. To follow the relevant provisions in Title 9 CFR Section 145.53, 146.33 and 146.23 for sample collection and flock monitoring.

3. Cancellation of Agreement

- A. This agreement is purely voluntary, and shall continue in effect from year to year, but may be canceled by the participant upon written notice to the North Central Poultry Association or by the North Central Poultry Association, in its authority as the OSA, at any time upon written notice to the member for violation of regulations. This agreement may also be revoked by the participant by providing a written statement to the National Plans Division of the North Central Poultry Association.
